

Violence Threat Risk Assessment Training (VTRA) with Dewey Cornell, Ph.D.

OCTOBER 5th, 2015

8:45 a.m. — 3:45 p.m.

CARMAN UNITED CHURCH
142 1ST STREET SW, CARMAN, MB

Dr. Dewey Cornell will train school-based teams to conduct assessments of students who threaten to commit an act of violence.

Training will include:

- ◆ Evaluation of a threat
- ◆ Determining seriousness of a threat
- ◆ Response decision making
- ◆ Safety planning for victims and student at risk.

Build your divisional/agency team capacity by training with Dr. Cornell. His practical, step-by-step guidelines for school-wide violence prevention are reinforced in the easy-to-use manual.

Who Should Attend This Workshop?

School Administrators, Divisional VTRA teams, Clinicians, and Support Agencies including Child & Family Services, RCMP Personnel, and Community & Mental Health Professionals.

Space is limited.

Dewey G. Cornell, Ph.D. is a forensic clinical psychologist and Professor of Education at the University of Virginia. Dr. Cornell has studied youth violence & conducted forensic evaluations of juvenile offenders since 1984. He is the author of more than 100 professional publications including research on juvenile homicide, psychological assessment, and school safety.
