

PRSD believes in the principle of Human Rights as identified in the Manitoba Human Rights Code, the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, The Safe Schools Charter, The Public Schools Act, and the United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights.

PRSD is committed to creating and maintaining an environment in which students, parents and employees are aware of and respect the rights and dignity of others. PRSD expects students, parents, employees, independent contractors, and all others providing or receiving goods and services within PRSD shall actively protect the dignity, values and equality of others.

PRSD believes in the importance of understanding, respecting, valuing and appreciating the diverse cultural and human sexual differences and perspectives within PRSD in order for it to be more successful in providing appropriate educational services for students.

PRSD is committed to ensuring that all LGBTQ students, employees, volunteers and community members have the right to learn and work in environments free of negative conduct or actions based on gender bias, sexual stereotyping, sexual orientation or gender identity.
