

A student who has been expelled from school in another school division or school district shall not be admitted to any PRSD school until:

- (a) a Schools of Choice application has been completed (if non-resident); (See JFB)
- (b) all the student's records have been received;
- (c) a determination can be made regarding the appropriateness of the student's placement/programming in a PRSD school.

The principal of the school and the Superintendent/CEO's department shall make that determination.
