

The Board encourages its professional staff to avail itself of opportunities offered by various agencies to carry out professional research and publishing.

Whenever such research involving PRSD is of a major nature, the research shall be authorized by the Board prior to commencement, and results of such research shall be made available to the Board. The Board will discuss the research and may authorize assistance.