

PRSD encourages the formation of student councils, not only to provide enrichment activities for the schools, but as an exercise in good citizenship.

Student councils, where they are formed, will be subject to the regulations of the school and under the direction of the staff advisor and the Principal.